DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is in response to the Appeal brief filed on July 28, 2005.
2. Claims 1-7 are allowed.

Reason for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As pointed out by the Applicants on pages 5-7 of the Appeal brief that the cited prior art (Eatough et al. [2004/0139430], Chari [6,151,023] and Published document "System for Accessing a Mainframe From a Workstation User Interface" by IBM Technical Disclosure Bulletin) taken alone or in combination fail to teach, in combination with the other claimed limitations, a method of interfacing an existing system management user interface running on a first computer system with a system management software utility running on a second computer system in a network, said second computer system having a network address, said method comprising the steps of: "determining the software management system utility running on the second computer system by using a table cross-referencing the network address of the second computer system with the system management software utility running on the second computer system; and interfacing, using specifications from the set of specifications, the user interface with the software utility running on the second computer system" as recited in such a manner in the independent claims 1, 3, 5 and 7.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue
